St. James's, March 20.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windſor, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Sidney Beauclerk, and Henry Fox, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of New Windſor, in the County of Berks.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, crave Leave to approach your Majeſty with Hearts truly ſenſible of the many and great Advantages we enjoy under your Majeſty's paternal Care and Protection; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that nothing ſhall be wanting on our Parts to preſerve thoſe Invaluable Bleſſings, by a firm Attachment to your moſt ſacred Perſon and Royal Family, from whom alone we can expect the Continuance of them to us and our Poſterity.

We cannot, without Abhorrence and Deteſtation, think on thoſe wicked Deſigns which have been concerted abroad to diſturb the Peace and Welfare of theſe Kingdoms, by an Attempt to place a Popiſh Pretender on the Throne; but it fills us with the utmoſt Aſtoniſhment to find they have met with Encouragement from thoſe who have lived under the Protection, and enjoyed the benign Influence, of your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government; their Crime is of the deepeſt Dye, being ſtamped with the baſeſt Perfidiouſneſs and Ingratitude.

That your Majeſty may long live the Support and Ornament of our Church and State; that the Reins of Government (which your Majeſty has undertaken for our Sakes) may be eaſy in your Hands; and that it may be the greateſt Emulation among us, to approve ourſelves the beſt of Subjects to the beſt of Kings: Theſe, great Sir, are the fervent Prayers, and ſhall be the conſtant Endeavours, of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newport in the Iſle of Wight, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Anthony Chute and Monoux Cope, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, who were introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newport in the Iſle of Wight in the County of Southampton.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newport in the Iſle of Wight, in the County of Southampton, being fully convinced of the wicked Deſigns carried on by your Enemies in Favour of the Pretender, beg Leave to make Uſe of the moſt early Opportunity of expreſſing our Abhorrence of ſo inſolent and perfidious an Attempt.

Every Principle of Duty, and every Motive of Intereſt and Gratitude, engage our moſt zealous and ſteady Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, being aſſured, by the Experience of former Ages, that our Laws muſt be entirely ſubverted, and our Liberties deſtroy'd, under the Government of any Prince under the Influence of France, and educated in the ſlaviſh Doctrines of the Church of Rome.

Permit us therefore, Sir, to aſſure your Majeſty with the greateſt Sincerity and Affection, that we will, even at the Expence of our Lives, and every Thing that is dear to us, upon this and every other Occaſion, chearfully exert our utmoſt Endeavours to ſupport your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, and to fruſtrate ſuch wicked Deſigns: And we hope, that the Providence of God, which ſo remarkably gave you you Victory in the late Day of Battle, will continue to your Majeſty the ſame Succeſs over all your Enemies both at Home and Abroad, that our Religion may be ſecured, the Liberties of Europe reſtored, and Peace, with Honour and Dignity, obtained.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous: That all your Subjects may have a true and grateful Senſe of the Bleſſings they enjoy under your mild and auſpicious Government; and that the Crown of theſe Realms may continue in your illuſtrious Houſe, till Time ſhall be no more, is the ſincere and hearty Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs of the Alderman, High Steward and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Malmesbury, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir John Ruſhworth, Bart. High Steward of the ſaid Borough, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Alderman, High Steward and Capital Burgeſſes of your ancient Borough of Malmesbury.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence of the moſt inſolent and perfidious Deſign of France to invade your Majeſty's Dominions, and impoſe on us a Popiſh and abjured Pretender.

But what could your Majeſty expect from that Nation who have always been remarkable for not thinking themſelves bound by the moſt ſolemn Treaties, and trample upon the Rights and Liberties of Mankind: They lately invaded the Dominions of the Queen of Hungary; and if your Majeſty had not moſt ſeaſonably and prudently interpoſed, and been bleſs'd with a ſignal and ever memorable Victory, ſhe muſt have been undone, and ſubmitted, together with all the reſt of the old and natural Allies of Britain, to the ambitious Views and Power of France; and perhaps this Country might only have been diſtinguiſhed by being the laſt devoured.

We take the Liberty of aſſuring your Majeſty, that we will always take Care to chuſe ſuch Perſons for our Repreſentatives in Parliament, who are as zealouſly and faithfully attached to your Majeſty and your Government, as we are ourſelves; for we are truly ſenſible of the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's wiſe and prudent Reign, which we hope will be tranſmitted in your auguſt Houſe to our lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our Common Seal, this Tenth Day of March 1743-4.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Edgecombe, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, fill'd with the utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the daring and treacherous Deſigns of France (a Kingdom infamous, to a Proverb, for Breach of Faith) to introduce into your Majeſty's Dominions, the Pretender's eldeſt Son, (a Creature educated in all the ſhocking Superſtition and ſtupid Bigottry of Rome) do with the greateſt Sincerity and Submiſſion, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, and with the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, that we ſhall, on every Occaſion, readily and chearfully exert our utmoſt Efforts in the Defence of both your undoubted Right and Title to the Crown your Majeſty ſo glorioufly wears, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your moſt illuſtrious Family; and theſe at the Expence of whatever can be accounted dear and valuable to us.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiff and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Bewdley, has been preſented to his Majeſty by William Bowles, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, who was introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff and Burgeſſes, of the Borough of Bewdley in the County of Worceſter.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff and Burgeſſes of your Borough of Bewdley in the County of Worceſter, humbly beſeech your Majeſty to permit us to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſincere Deteſtation and Abhorrence of thoſe Deſigns which (we obſerve by your Meſſage to your Parliament) are carrying on by your Majeſty's Enemies, in Favour of a Popiſh and abjured Pretender.

As your Majeſty's tender Care and Concern for the Happineſs of all your Subjects, muſt convince all Mankind, that you are truly the Father of all your People; and as the Enjoyment of our Civil and Religious Rights depend, under God, upon the Safety of your ſacred Perſon, and the Succeſſion of your Royal Iſſue; we beg Leave to declare to your Majeſty, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, ſtand by, ſupport and defend your Majeſty's undoubted Right to the Crown of theſe Realms, and the Succeſſion of it in your Royal Family, againſt the ſaid Pretender, and all other your Majeſty's Enemies. In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed the Common Seal of our Borough, the Tenth Day of March, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

under

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Aſſiſtants, and of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Borough of Leeds, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir Miles Stapleton, Bart. being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Aſſiſtants, and of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Borough of Leeds in the County of York.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, juſtly alarmed at the inſolent Attempt to invade this Kingdom on the Behalf of a Popiſh Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown, beg Leave, amongſt the reſt of your faithful Subjects, to expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence thereof.

That a Power accuſtomed to diſtinguiſh away Treaties, and to diſpenſe with the Performance of them at Pleaſure, ſhould engage in ſuch an Attempt, is not Matter of Wonder to us: But that any of your Majeſty's Subjects, who, during your auſpicious Government, have enjoyed all the Bleſſings for procuring and preſerving whereof Civil Government was inſtituted, ſhould be capable of acting in Concert with the Invaders, is truly aſtoniſhing.

As good Princes have always been the peculiar Care of Divine Providence, we firmly hope the ſame Almighty Power which has hitherto protected your Majeſty, and covered your Head in the Day of Battle, will ſtill defend you and your Kingdom againſt all their Enemies.

And as we are juſtly ſenſible that as well our holy Religion as our civil Properties muſt fall Victims to this Invaſion, ſhould it prove ſucceſsful, we aſſure your Majeſty we will not only chearfully contribute to the Expence requiſite to oppoſe and defeat it; but be ready at all Times to ſupport and defend your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government againſt all your Enemies whatſoever.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council, Barons, and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Sandwich, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir George Oxendon, Bart. and John Pratt, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, who were introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council, Barons, and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Sandwich in the County of Kent, one of the Cinque Ports.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council, Barons, and Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Port of Sandwich in the County of Kent, being deeply affected with the certain Intelligence which your Majeſty has received of an intended Invaſion of this Kingdom in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender, beg Leave to expreſs our Loyalty and Fidelity to your Majeſty, and our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of ſo deſperate and wicked an Attempt.

The many great and ineſtimable Privileges and Immunities, which we enjoy in common with the reſt of our Fellow Subjects, under your Majeſty's moſt gracious and mild Government, our Love of Liberty, the Purity of our holy Religion, the peculiar Excellence of our Laws, and happy Conſtitution, make it our Intereſt as well as Duty, to do every Thing in our Power to preſerve theſe invaluable Bleſſings ſacred and inviolable to ourſelves and our Poſterity, and to protect them from all Attempts whatſoever to undermine and deſtroy them.

The Cinque Ports, Sir, have in former Times made no inconſiderable Figure in this Iſland: They are juſtly diſtinguiſhed in Hiſtory for the many gallant Actions and Atchievements performed by them in the Defence of the Sea-Coaſts, as often as they have been invaded by a Foreign Enemy: They have, in Return, received many remarkable and ſingular Privileges, granted to them by Charter from your Majeſty's Royal Predeceſſors, Kings of England, as a Recompence and Reward for their eminent and timely Services on on ſuch important Occaſions: Privileges, which, to their immortal Honour, ſcarce any of their Fellow Subjects can boaſt of, and ſuch as they have never forfeited, but continue to exerciſe and enjoy to this very Day.

In Imitation therefore of the laudable and ſteady Zeal of our Forefathers, your Majeſty, we flatter ourſelves, may depend ſafely upon the ſame Spirit, and Love of our Country, in us their Deſcendants, of this ancient Port, to oppoſe with Vigour and Reſolution, as far as in us lies, all Attempts whatſoever, and all Encouragements whatſoever, to land in our Territories ritories and invade your Kingdom; and as by our Situation we are neareſt the Danger, ſo we ſhall have the Honour of being foremoſt in Action, to repel its Progreſs, and to teſtify to your Majeſty, whenever this Tryal comes, how ready we ſhall be, Heart and Hand, to do what we profeſs, and hazard our Lives and Fortunes in maintaining the Liberties of our Country, and defending your Majeſty's undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, on the Support of which depends every Thing that is dear and valuable to us.

That God may proſper your Majeſty's Arms and Councils, and defeat the evil Deſigns and Attempts of your Enemies: That he may graciouſly be pleaſed to continue to protect the Crown on your Head; and after a long and proſperous Reign of Glory to yourſelf, and Felicity to your Subjects, tranſmit it in Peace to your illuſtrious Deſcendants to all ſucceeding Ages, are the conſtant and ſincere Wiſhes and Prayers of us your Majeſty's loyal and affectionate Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal at Sandwich aforeſaid, the Twelfth Day of March 1743.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Common Council Men, Gentlemen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Dover, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord George Sackville, and Thomas Revel, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Common Council Men, Gentlemen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Dover in the County of Kent.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Common Council Men, Gentlemen, Freemen and Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal Town and Port of Dover, beg Leave, at this Time, to aſſure your Majeſty of that Zeal and inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, which the moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects can have to the moſt gracious and indulgent Sovereign.

The raſh and deſperate Attempt of France, in endeavouring to ſubvert our Conſtitution, by raiſing the Pretender to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, muſt create in every true Engliſhman the higheſt Reſentment and Indignation: For as we are ſenſible that the only Means of delivering down to Poſterity thoſe invaluable Bleſſings, which we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, is the ſupporting your Majeſty's undoubted Right to the Crown of theſe Realms; ſo we now, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, offer our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of that Cauſe, on which, not only the Security of your Royal Perſon, but our Liberty, our Property, and our Religion, depend.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark upon Trent, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord William Manners, and Job Staunton Charlton, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham.

WE beg Leave, moſt gracious Sovereign, amongſt others of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, to declare our Deteſtation of the Invaſion now threatning your Majeſty's Dominions in Favour of that Pretender to your Crown, whom we and our Forefathers have long ſince, by ſolemn Oaths, abjured; and which we ſhall religiouſly and ſtrictly obſerve.

We conceive it ſtrange that an Arbitrary Popiſh Prince ſhould imagine, that we, who are a free People, and in full Enjoyment of our Religion and Eſtates under a moſt gracious Sovereign, who never attempted to break in upon either, but in every Branch of our Conſtitution has moſt ſacredly obſerved his Promiſe, ſhould be willing to exchange our Freedom, and all other our invaluable Bleſſings, for a Perſon educated at Rome, and in League with the Common Enemy of Great Britain.

We, moſt gracious Sovereign, are too ſenſible of theſe great Advantages, not to exert our beſt Endeavours, and contribute our Shares, either with our Perſons or Purſes, to ſupport your Government and Family on that Throne which your Majeſty fills with ſo much Glory and Satisfaction at home, and Terror againſt all Tyrants and Oppreſſors abroad, however hazardous and dangerous to your Royal Perſon, whom may Providence protect, as well for the Virtues ſo inherent in your Royal Perſon, as for the Sake of a dutiful, loyal and obedient People.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Council of the Corporation of Lancaſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs has Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen

Aldermen and Council of the Corporation of Lancaſter.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Council of your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Lancaſter, in Common Council aſſembled, having heard that Preparations are making abroad, by the common Diſturber of the Peace and Repoſe of all Europe, to invade this Kingdom in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender to your Majeſty's Throne, thereby endeavouring to deprive us of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, which we happily enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government and Protection, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, and with the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, ſupport, maintain and defend your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion to the Crown in your Majeſty's Royal Houſe, as well againſt the unnatural Attempts of any Faction at home, as your Majeſty's Enemies abroad; and may your Majeſty's Reign be proſperous and happy, as we hope it will be long over us.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid Corporation to be affixed hereto, this ſecond Day of March, in the Year of our Lord 1743.

The following Addreſs from the Aldermen, Bailiffs, Common Council and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Denbigh, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Wynn, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

An humble Addreſs from the Aldermen, Bailiffs, Common Council and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Denbigh.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE the Aldermen, Bailiffs, Common Council and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Denbigh, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with our warmeſt and moſt dutiful Aſſurances, in this critical Conjuncture.

Your Majeſty's juſt and gentle Reign ought naturally to excite in us, all that Loyalty and Gratitude, which is the due Return of free and happy Subjects to the moſt indulgent and beſt of Princes.

But when, contrary to the Faith of Treaties, a Foreign Power ſhall threaten to invade this Kingdom, and ſhall even preſume publickly to ſupport an odious, exploded and inſolent Claim to your Majeſty's Crown and Title; What Words can be equal to our juſt Indignation and Abhorrence, or what Sacrifice can be too large for the Defence of your ſacred Right, and for the Preſervation of our Religion and Laws, and of all that is moſt dear and valuable to us.

If any lurking inveterate bad Hearts at Home, have invited and encouraged the known Enemy of our Quiet, and of the Liberties of Europe, to undertake this raſh and deſperate Enterprize, we truſt that the Legiſlature will continue to exert itſelf, in ſuch a Manner of putting Strength and Power into your Majeſty's Hands, and that ſo good a Spirit will ariſe in this Nation, as may teach thoſe, who mean to diſturb us, that your Majeſty's Throne can never be ſhaken, while it is thus firmly founded on the Valour, Wealth, and Affection of a generous and great People.

Accept, Dread Sir, our fervent Wiſhes for the Peace, Glory and Length of your Reign.

Given under our Corporation Seal, the Ninth Day of March 1743-4.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Haverford Weſt, has been preſented to his Majeſty by George Barlow, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Haverford Weſt.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of your Town and County of your Town of Haverford Weſt, aſſembled in our Council Chamber, being alarmed at the intended Invaſion of theſe Kingdoms, beg Leave to preſent your Majeſty with our juſt Reſentments of it, and with our inviolable Attachment to your ſacred Perſon and Government.

That the common Diſturber of the Tranquility of Europe, check'd always in his ambitious Deſigns by your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Proweſs, and of late moſt ſhamefully defeated, ſhould endeavour to wreak his Revenge on your Majeſty's Dominions, is not ſo much to be wondred at; but that any who have the Happineſs of being Inhabitants of theſe Iſlands, ſhould join with him in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender, or in any Deſign whatever, to diſturb your Reign, is what fills us with Surprize and the higheſt Indignation. We are willing to hope, that this Perfidy and Infatuation of our Fellow Subjects is but of ſmall Extent, and that the concurrent Voice of the Nation, at this Juncture, will give your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurance of Britiſh Fidelity in general.

As for ourſelves, we do ſolemnly declare that we are truly ſenſible of the invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, that no Conſideration whatſoever ſhall work us into a Thought of Diſaffection; that we will to our utmoſt ſupport your Majeſty againſt all foreign and domeſtick Enemies; and inceſſantly pray to God, by whom Kings reign, that he would be pleaſed to fix the Scepter of theſe Kingdoms immoveable in your Majeſty's auguſt Family to the lateſt Poſterity.

Given under the Common Seal of the Corporation, this fifth Day of March, in the ſeventeenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Dundie, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. Captain Thomas Leſlie, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Dundie, in Common Council aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Dundie, beg Leave, with the utmoſt Reſpect and Gratitude, to acknowledge the Goodneſs and Wiſdom you was pleaſed to ſhow, in ſignifying to your Houſes of Parliament, that you had Intelligence of a Deſign formed againſt your Crown, and againſt the Happineſs of thoſe Nations which you rule over. The Accounts we had of ſuch a Deſign, occaſioned to us all that Indignation, which it behoved to produce in the Minds of true Britiſh Subjects, who are deeply ſenſible of the Duty we owe to your Majeſty our only lawful Sovereign. And as under your auſpicious Reign, we enjoy the free Exerciſe of our Religion, and have our Civil Liberties ſecured to us; Bleſſings, without which we ſhould not think even Life and Fortune in any Meaſure valuable; ſo we are determined to do what ſhall be in our Power, for preſerving the Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Family, and for Defeating any Enterprize that may be undertaken againſt your Majeſty's Crown and Government.

Signed in Preſence and by Appointment,
Patrick Yeaman, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of your Majeſty's Borough of Perth, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. Captain Thomas Leſlie, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of your Majeſty's ancient Royal Borough of Perth, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Councellors of Perth, entertain with the greateſt Concern and Abhorrence the Deſign formed by the French, thoſe common Diſturbers of the Peace of Europe, to invade your Majeſty's Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender to your Crown, and their Calling with that View into France his Son, as their Tool for creating and Fomenting Diſloyalty amongſt your Majeſty's Subjects.

Our Failure in the due Improvement of the many Bleſſings, ſacred and civil, we, the People of Britain and Ireland, do enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, might juſtly provoke the moſt high God to make us feel the Calamities attending a foreign Sword and inteſtine Broils; but we firmly hope he ſhall render your Majeſty's fatherly Vigilance, and your Arms in the Hands of your loyal Subjects by Sea and Land, effectual for the Defeat of this and all other inſolent Attempts againſt your ſacred Perſon and Government, to the Confuſion of all your Enemies; and we beg Leave in the moſt humble and ſincere Manner, and with Hearts firmly attached in Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe, to declare that we are in Readineſs to hazard our All in your Majeſty's Defence.

Signed in our Preſence and by our Appointment at Perth, the Third Day of March 1744. by

James Crie, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, humbly beg Leave to declare our Abhorrence of the perfidious Deſign, formed in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown.

This Attempt, to deprive us of all the invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, in open Breach of the moſt ſolemn Treaties, muſt fill every loyal Heart with the utmoſt Indignation.

France, and all the Enemies of our Rights, and Liberties, well know, that our Religion, Laws and Properties entirely depend upon the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover, and and never attempt the Subverſion of them, but by Meaſures formed and pointed againſt your illuſtrious Family.

Your Majeſty's faithful Subjects cannot, therefore, too quickly take the Alarm, nor exert their Endeavours too vigorouſly, on this Occaſion, to diſſipate any Diſaffection, or repell any Danger that may threaten our happy Conſtitution.

To this we are bound, by all the Ties of Gratitude, Duty and Intereſt, in common with our Fellow Subjects. And we have ſtill farther and more peculiar Motives, as a Seminary of Religion and Learning. Your Univerſity of Dublin, diſtinguiſhed for an inviolable Attachment and Fidelity to your Royal Houſe, has always cultivated, in the Youth of your Kingdom of Ireland, Sentiments and Principles entirely inconſiſtent with Popiſh Superſtition and Tyranny; and, from a lively Memory of the Oppreſſions formerly felt in a Popiſh Reign, has the utmoſt Reaſon to dread the leaſt Proſpect of Power in ſuch arbitrary Hands.

We humbly beg Leave to give your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurance, that we reſolve, by animating our Youth with a proper Zeal, and by the moſt extenſive Uſe of our Influence, to contribute every Thing in our Power, to the Safety and Welfare of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and we are confident, that the known Vigilance and Courage of your Majeſty, ſupported by the concurring Affection of your faithful People, through God's Aſſiſtance, will enable you to fruſtrate the Attempts of your Enemies, and to perpetuate the Bleſſings, we now enjoy, by the Continuance of your Majeſty, and your illuſtrious Off-ſpring, in the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury and Freeholders of the County of Weſtmeath, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury and Freeholders of the County of Weſtmeath, aſſembled at a General Aſſizes for the ſaid County at Mullingar, the ſecond of March 1743-4.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury and Freeholders of the County of Weſtmeath, having a moſt grateful Senſe of the great and many Bleſſings we derive from your Majeſty's juſt and auſpicious Reign, by the full Enjoyment of our Laws, and Security of our Liberties and Properties, (Bleſſings envied us by all the Powers of the Church of Rome) do lay hold on this Occaſion to expreſs to your Majeſty our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the Invaſion againſt your Majeſty's Dominions at this Time threatned, by a French Power, in Support of a Popiſh Pretender.

We make no Doubt, but by the great Vigilance, Care and wiſe Adminiſtration of our preſent Lord Lieutenant his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, that any intended Inſurrection in this Kingdom, by Perſons diſaffected to your Majeſty, or any other wicked Popiſh Machinations, will be entirely defeated and ſuppreſſed; and that Peace and Happineſs will be continued unto us.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall, upon this and all other Occaſions, be ready to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majeſty's juſt and undoubted Right to the Crown of theſe Realms; and, as true Deſcendants of thoſe Proteſtants in this Kingdom, who at the late Revolution, under the Banner of King William the Third of glorious Memory, oppoſed a Popiſh and Arbitrary Prince, having the ſame Affiance in your Majeſty, will now, with equal Zeal, oppoſe every Attempt which his pretended Deſcendants ſhall make on your Majeſty's Rights; and, as Sons of Loyalty and Liberty, upon every Opportunity will be moſt ardently deſirous of ſhewing, that a firm Attachment to your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Family, is, and ſhall be, our governing Principle; and that we ſhall ever be mindful of thoſe glorious Bleſſings we ſo fully poſſeſs under your Majeſty's Government.

The following Addreſs of the Maſter, Wardens, Aſſiſtants and Commonalty of Merchant Adventurers within the City of Briſtol, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. Edward Southwell, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives for the City of Briſtol, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Maſter, Wardens, Aſſiſtants and Commonalty of Merchant Adventurers within the City of Briſtol, in Common Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Maſter, Wardens, Aſſiſtants and Commonalty of Merchant Adventurers within the City of Briſtol, moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty to accept our ſincereſt Profeſſions of Duty, Zeal and Affection to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, at this Time, when the Diſturbers of Europe are directing their pernicious Schemes againſt your Majeſty's Dominions, in Favour of an abjured Popiſh Pretender; an Indignity ſo great in its own Nature, and in its Conſequences ſo important, offered to your Majeſty and your Kingdoms, in Violation of the the moſt ſolemn Engagements, fills our Hearts with equal Horror and Deteſtation.

The Wiſdom and Equity of your Majeſty's Government, your Royal Concern for the Rights of your People, and the peculiar Regard your Majeſty is daily ſhowing for their Commercial Intereſts, call for all the Returns which a grateful People, ſenſible of their preſent Happineſs, and concerned for the Intereſts of lateſt Poſterity, can make to the beſt of Kings.

We therefore moſt humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with unſhaken Loyalty, ſtand by and ſupport your Majeſty's undoubted Title to the Crown, and at all Times exert our utmoſt Endeavours in Defence of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe, againſt the Pretender and all other your Majeſty's Enemies whatſoever.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Scarbrough has been preſented to his Majeſty by General Howard, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Scarbrough in the County of York.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

THE many Proofs we have received of your Majeſty's tender Care and Concern for our Religious and Civil Rights, and the many Dangers your ſacred Life hath been expoſed to, for the Honour and Safety of theſe Realms, and for the Intereſt of Chriſtendom, demand the moſt grateful Returns of our Allegiance and Affection to your Royal Perſon and Family; but eſpecially at this Time, when we are threatened with an Invaſion to extirpate our Religion, Laws and Liberties, to ſet the Pretender upon your Majeſty's Throne, and ourſelves to be made Tributaries and Slaves to France.

We think with the higheſt Reſentment upon the Indignities that have been offered by France to your Majeſty's Crown, and the inſolent Attempt now making to deprive a free People of all the Bleſſings we can hope to enjoy, as Proteſtants and Freemen; but we ſhould be a Reproach to the Memory of our Anceſtors, to this Age, and to Poſterity, if we did not oppoſe the Invaders, with all our Force, and all Attempts whatſoever to promote the Cauſe of the Pretender, Popery, arbitrary Power, or a French Government: And we doubt not, Sir, but your Majeſty's Subjects will univerſally redouble their Zeal on this Occaſion, and act with united Hands and Hearts, to daſh and defeat the vain Projects of that enterpriſing Court, and convince the whole World, that the Spirit and Temper of the Britiſh Nation, will never ſuffer the Britiſh Liberties, the Proteſtant Religion, or the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe, to periſh in their Hands.

Acting from theſe Motives, and influenced by theſe Principles; and being firmly perſuaded, that, under God, the Preſervation of our happy Conſtitution in Church and State depends intirely upon your Majeſty, we are engaged, by our Allegiance to your Majeſty, by our Zeal for our Religion, and Fidelity to our Country, to give your Majeſty all poſſible Demonſtrations of our Duty and Loyalty, and therefore we your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, are determined, to the utmoſt of our Power, and at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to defend your Majeſty's lawful Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, againſt all your Enemies both at Home or Abroad; and to uſe our utmoſt Endeavour to detect and bring to condign Puniſhment, all ſuch of your Majeſty's Subjects as we ſhall find to be concerned in this execrable and unnatural Attempt againſt your Majeſty and their native Country.

We hope, by the Divine Aſſiſtance, your Majeſty will ſoon overcome all your Enemies, avenge the Injuries offered to your Crown, and bring to Reaſon the Diſturbers of the Peace of Europe.

Given under our Common Seal at Scarbrough the Fourth Day of March 1743.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Litchfield, has been preſented to his Majeſty by their Recorder, and George Venables Vernon, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Litchfield to his Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects beg Leave to declare to your Majeſty our hearty Abhorrence of the Invaſion threatened to your Majeſty's Dominions by the French, in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender.

We are truly ſenſible of our Happineſs under your Majeſty's Government, in the quiet Enjoyment of our Religion, Laws and Liberties; and ſhall always be ready, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to ſupport your Majeſty and your Royal Family, by whom alone theſe great Bleſſings can be effectually ſecured.

Dated under our Common Seal of the City, this Twelfth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord 1743.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Merchants of Bideford, has been preſented to his Majeſty by by L. Stukely, Eſq; their Recorder, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The moſt humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and Merchants of Bideford, in the County of Devon.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and Merchants of Bideford, humbly beg Leave to declare our Aſtoniſhment and Indignation, at the vain Attempt of the French, with a deſpicable Fleet of Ships, to make a Deſcent upon your Majeſty's Dominions, in order to ſettle the Pretender here.

Your Majeſty's Subjects have too juſt a Senſe of the eſtabliſhed Difference between abſolute and limited Monarchy, between the Government in France, and your Majeſty's Government, which is limited by Law, to exchange the happy and glorious Conſtitution of Great Britain, for the Chains, Fetters, and Wooden Shoes of France, or ever to intruſt a Viceroy of France, or a Popiſh Pretender, with their Civil and Religious Rights and Liberties.—— Againſt all ſuch Deſigns, your Majeſty may be aſſured of our Readineſs, to act with the utmoſt Vigour, with the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes.

That your Majeſty may long reign in full Glory and Security, and that the Proteſtant Eſtabliſhment of the Crown may always continue in your illuſtrious Family, for the Defence and Preſervation of all our juſt Rights and Liberties, againſt all Attempts and Invaſions whatſoever, whether from Foreign or Domeſtick Enemies, is our ſincere and conſtant Prayer.

By the Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHereas We have received His Majeſty's Royal Pleaſure, that the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now ſtands prorogued to Thurſday the Fifteenth Day of March Inſtant, ſhould be further prorogued; We do therefore hereby publiſh and declare, that the ſaid Parliament be, and accordingly the ſaid Parliament is, hereby further prorogued to Tueſday the Third Day of July next: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament, are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at His Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin, the Thirteenth Day of March 1743.

By his Grace's Command,

J. Potter.

GOD ſave the King.

Petersbourg, Feb. 25. M. Korff, one of her Imperial Majeſty's Gentlemen of the Bed, who was ſent to compliment the Duke Adminiſtrator of Holſtein, upon his being elected Succeſſor to the Crown of Sweden, and afterwards followed his Royal Highneſs into that Kingdom, arrived here Yeſterday from Stockholm, and will proceed to Moſcow in two or three Days. The Imperial Miniſter ſat out Yeſterday for Moſcow; the Daniſh Ambaſſador goes To-morrow, and will be follow'd in a Day or two by the Reſidents of the Queen of Hungary and the States General.

Toulon, March 7. The Spaniſh Commiſſary, who is here, has juſt received Advice from the Intendant of Barcelona, that the Neptune Man of War, commanded by Don Olivarez, had put in there in a very ſhatter'd Condition to refit; that a Captain and ſeven Officers out of eight that were on board, had been killed in the Engagement, beſides fourſcore of the Crew; that that Veſſel had left her Squadron upon the 27th, and that upon that Day the Engliſh were ſtill in purſuit of the combined Fleets. The Intendant here has alſo received Advice from Marſeilles, that upon the 3d of this Month a Ship was arrived there from Havre de Grace, the Captain of which Reports, that upon the 26th and 27th of laſt Month, about 30 Miles off Barcelona, he met the Spaniſh Squadron making towards the Weſt; that he had ſpoke with Don Navarro, whoſe Ship the Royal Philip had loſt two of her Maſts in the Engagement. Not one of our Ships is returned hither. Some Veſſels belonging to the Engliſh Fleet that were left at Villa Franca have taken ſeven or eight Tartans and Tranſports. The Infant Don Philip arrived at Aix the 3d of this Month. Provence is full of Soldiers, who are preparing to paſs into Italy; but as there is not much Appearance of their being able to do it by Sea, they muſt endeavour to force the Paſſage of the Var.

Berlin, March 21. The King of Pruſſia is expected here towards the 29th Inſtant. His Majeſty returns by Peytz in Luſace, to ſee the new Fortifications there.

Paris, March 21. Count de Saxe arrived here laſt Wedneſday Night with ſeveral other Officers who were appointed to ſerve in the Expedition at Dunkirk.

Hague, March 24. The States of Holland ſeparated laſt Saturday, and expect, upon their Return hither, to find their three Colleges of Admiralty, namely, thoſe of the Meuſe, Amſterdam, and North Holland, ready with their Recommendations of proper Officers to be promoted to the Rank of Admirals. In the mean Time the Colleges of the Meuſe and Amſterdam are hard at Work in getting their reſpective Quotas of the Ships, propoſed to be equipped, in Readineſs as ſoon as poſſible. That of the Meuſe has already engaged ſeveral hundreds of Sailors; and that of Amſterdam has put ſeven of its beſt Ships into Commiſſion. And we hear the Zealanders are no leſs active at Middleburg.

Hague, March 27. The Provinces of Overyſſel and Zealand have conſented to the two Petitions for the Land Service this Year: And we hope very ſoon to receive a favourable Reſolution from the Province of Guelderland. Our Letters from Italy confirm the Retreat of the Spaniards from Peſaro; and add, that Count Brown, who was in purſuit of them, had taken 200 of their Miquelets Priſoners, and three Pieces of Cannon; that the Deſertion from them was prodigious, and that they had not ſtopp'd at Sinigaglia, but were continuing their Flight towards the Abruzzo in the Kingdom of Naples. We hear from Warſaw, that in Conſequence of the Family Diſputes in Poland, a Duel had been fought between Count Tarlo, and young Count Poniatowsky, in which the former loſt his Life, and the latter was very dangerouſly wounded; and that it was hoped this unfortunate Affair might be the Occaſion of delivering that Kingdom from the Apprehenſion they were under of Domeſtick Troubles.

Hague, March 27, N. S. There are ſeveral Letters here, which ſpeak as if the Embarkation at Dunkirk would be ſpeedily reſumed; and in ſome from Paris it is mentioned, that Count Saxe had Orders to return thither.

Bruſſels, March 25.

Continuation of the Advices from Dunkirk, from the 13*th to the* 21*ſt Inſtant.*

March 13. The Weather was ſtill very bad Yeſterday. Only four Veſſels fill'd with Troops were able to come into Port with the Morning Tide. Another Tranſport Ship, having cut away her Maſts in the bad Weather, was forced upon the Coaſt over-againſt the new Batteries; Count de Donge, Colonel of the Regiment of Soiſſon, with Part of his Regiment, was on board, but they all landed after the going out of the Tide. There was again in the Afternoon another Ship on Shore near the Port, but all the Troops in her were ſaved. The Ships of M. de Barail's Squadron drove, and have loſt their Cables and Anchors. This Day, the Weather being fair, five or ſix Ships, ſome of which had French and Swiſs Troops on board, are come in. As the Wind is favourable for going out, they have got ready ſome freſh Supplies of Proviſions and Naval Stores to ſend to thoſe who are in the Road. There is yet no News of M. de Rocquefeuille.

March 16. Yeſterday the Letters of five Poſts were delivered out at once. Thoſe for Foreign Parts have been ſtopt 17 Days, though the Orders were ſaid to be, to detain them only two, during which Time, it was thought the Deſign might be effected, but it has proved otherwiſe. Expreſſes are continually coming and going from hence to Court.

March 17. Yeſterday in the Evening two Couriers arrived here, one of them from Breſt; who reports, that M. de Rocquefeuille had got into that Port, very much ſhattered. The other brought Leave for the Departure of the Generals, in Conſequence of which ſome of them went from hence immediately, and the others are gone to Day, all extremely chagrin'd with the ſhameful Iſſue of this ill-concerted Enterprize. But 12 Battalions now remain here, and one Lieutenant General, two Major Generals, and two Brigadiers. M. D'Apcher will ſet out on Sunday, and M. de Barail, who commands the Men of War in the Road, will ſail, as is ſaid, with the firſt fair Wind for Breſt.

March 21. The Generals and Field Officers are all gone, excepting thoſe who are to have the Command of the 12 Battalions which are left here. It is now reported, that of the Breſt Squadron, only the Diviſion under the Chevalier de Camilli, has been able to get into that Port. This Diviſion conſiſts but of eight Ships, and there is no News of the 12 others under the Command of M. de Rocquefeuille. M. de Barail has now but four Ships under his Command, the 5th having parted from him in the late Storms. He ſtill continues in the Road waiting for a fair Wind to carry him to Breſt.

Whitehall, March 20.

The King has been pleaſed to appoint Onſlow Burriſh, Eſq; to be his Majeſty's Reſident at the Court of Bruſſels, and alſo at that of Liege.

St. James's, March 19.

This Day the Chevalier de Champigny, charg'd with the Affairs of the Elector of Cologne, had his firſt private Audience of his Majeſty, to deliver his Letters of Credence; to which he was introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Carteret, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.
